| 1. "WORKING WITH CHALLENGING STUDENTS: BULLIES & VICTIMS" | STARTS TUES., OCT. 10 |
|---|-----------------------|

WHEN: October 10 to November 7

WHAT: EDUX 5450 A, B, C, OR D

ZOOM Meeting: Tuesday, Oct. 10 - 5:00 PM

Flexible Scheduling

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course will offer participants the opportunity to collaborate with fellow teachers and administrators in order to better understand the negative impact of bullying behavior. During this course, participants will develop ways to work with bullies and victims, improve the self-image of both, and create ways to ensure that all students can learn in a safe and fear-free environment. As participants consider how bullying often obstructs the ability of students to progress both academically and socially, they will examine and collaborate on solutions to this serious issue in today's schools.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course emphasizes visiting community resources and natural and historically significant locations that bring the classroom to life. Participants will tour educational sites that have genuine implications for student achievement and social understanding. These tours will have application to all study skills and content across the curriculum. Rich resources for language arts, social science, multicultural studies, and math will be encountered. Participants will evaluate in depth the implications of the tour for their grade level and cross section of ability levels before and after taking a tour. This course provides a wonderful opportunity to enrich the classroom experience of all students and motivate them to read and write about the things they observe. (COUNTS AS A SPRING 2024 COURSE)
