| 1. "WORKING WITH CHALLENGING STUDENTS: BULLIES AND VICTIMS" | STARTS JULY 7 |
| Course #EDUX 5450 A, B, C or D (A New Course)               |                      |

WHEN: July 7 - 21 (includes online and outside practicum)

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course will offer participants the opportunity to collaborate with fellow teachers and administrators in order to better understand the negative impact of bullying behavior. During this course, participants will develop ways to work with bullies and victims, improve the self-image of both, and create ways to ensure that all students can learn in a safe and fear-free environment. As participants consider how bullying often obstructs the ability of students to progress both academically and socially, they will examine and collaborate on solutions to this serious issue in today's schools.

| 2. "TEACHING IN THE MULTICULTURAL CLASSROOM"  | STARTS AUG 4 |
| Course #EDUX 5390 A, B, C or D (A New Course) |                     |

WHEN: August 4 - 18 (includes online and outside practicum)

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course will assist classroom teachers to optimize the learning experience for students in the multicultural classroom. It will support educators in a pluralistic society to remain sensitive to the learning needs, personal interests and cultural characteristics of their students. The course further supports classroom teachers in helping them more fully understand the goal of multicultural education in creating educational opportunities that are equal for all students and in helping every child acquire the knowledge, attitudes, and skills needed to function effectively in a democratic society.
